From the Pastor's Desk

By Rev. Dr. Charles Alkula

Here we are, in the “dog days of summer,” and with August stretched out before us, we might be tempted to just ‘lay-low’ and ease our way to September. The Christian faith however doesn’t permit this type of thinking. Let’s look briefly at just a few of the ways a Christian (and certainly a United Methodist) is called to be an active participant in the life of faith, even during the hottest months!

“Courageous and forward-leaning mission-minded congregations practice spiritual disciplines. Our vital work is a spiritual adventure based in John Wesley’s means of grace. John Wesley taught that God’s grace is unearned and that we were not to be idle waiting to experience grace. We are to engage in means of grace which are ways God works invisibly in disciples, hastening, strengthening; and confirming faith so that God's grace pervades in and through disciples. As we look at the means of grace today, they can be divided into works of piety and works of mercy.” – from UMC.org

These means of grace can be divided into two areas: Works of Mercy and Works of Piety. Each area has two parts, individual (or private) acts and communal (or public) acts.

Works of Piety involve those activities that come from a spiritual aspect of our life. Works of Piety follow the example of Jesus as He lived in the presence of His God. Practices that nurture us in this area include:

Private Practices – These acts of devotion provide the means of going deeper into our faith and can be expressed in reading, meditating and studying the scriptures, prayer, fasting, and healthy living.

Public Practices – Having grown deeper in our spiritual practices, it is essential to remember that it is impossible to be a solitary Christian. We are instructed by scripture to regularly share in the sacraments, to engage in Christian conferencing (accountability to one another), to regularly attend worship, to share our faith with others, and to attend Bible study with others.

Works of Mercy means putting into practice what we profess in our hearts and on our lips. This is where the “rubber meets the road.”

Private Practices - doing good works, visiting the sick and those in prison, feeding the hungry and giving generously to the needs of others.

Public Practices – John Wesley believed it wasn’t enough to have sympathy for others unless we sought opportunities to change the conditions in a broader sense. Seeking justice, ending oppression and discrimination (for instance Wesley challenged Methodists to end slavery), and addressing the needs of the poor are examples of the change we can make in the world. It is important to remember to have a balanced approach to your faith with Christ as the example in all aspects of your life. If, as a Christian, you should find yourself putting all or most of your focus on one part of the following illustration, turn to God and to your sisters and brothers in the faith that you would be able to live life into the fullness of God’s peace.

Every blessing,

Pastor Charles

EFAA VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

UMCOR RESUPPLY HYGIENE KITS

As United Methodist's we are called to stand with the vulnerable and hurting in the world. There is a humanitarian crisis on our border with detained children and families. Regardless of political ideology, we are called to be part of responding with grace, compassion, and justice.

While UMCOR is barred from the facilities that hold migrants, our United Methodist connection continues along the US-Mexico border. In the past three months, UMCOR has delivered 46,128 hygiene kits to six church-run transitional shelters.

The General Board of Global Ministries asks us to respond in multiple ways. The best option to help restock UMCOR's hygiene kit supply is to work with UMCOR directly at <https://www.umcmission.org/umcor/serve/relief-supply-network/hygiene-kit> or via The Advance at <https://advance.umcor.org/p-616-material-resources.aspx>.

ST. PAUL'S ANNUAL YARD SALE

The Yard sale month is upon us! This year's sale is August 24. This all-church event is a major fundraiser for St. Paul's. Please sign the clipboard on Sunday mornings to help or call Sandi Cook at (303) 884-4123. We will especially need all hands on deck on Sunday, August 18, immediately after worship for the traditional "bucket brigade," as well as to take items to the yard on the 24th, and for clean-up after. See the schedule for the week below.

You may continue to bring your items to the Jerry Beaber Scout Room, though it is most helpful to wait and bring in larger items during the week of the sale. We will accept almost anything, with the exception of computer equipment, CRT TVs, child safety seats, mattresses and box springs, and hazardous materials. Contact Tim or Sandi with questions.

Please help make this year's sale a success!

Please make note of the following dates:

Saturday, August 17 Franz Hall Set-Up 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, August 18 "Fire Brigade" Bringing Up Items from Basement immediately after worship (be sure to dress appropriately)

Monday, August 19 - Friday, August 23 Pricing (morning & afternoon/early evening shifts)

Saturday, August 24 - Carry Items to Lawn 7:00 a.m.

SUNDAY MORNING TELLERS NEEDED

Calling all church members! The Finance Committee needs your help! Due to various and sundry reasons, we are finding ourselves short on people who are able and willing to serve the church as Sunday morning Teller (money counter). This is now a very easy and very quick job which is done immediately following the church service. If you are looking for a way to help the church, then this may be just the job for you. There are written instructions and trainings available.

We are looking for people who can serve for an entire month as part of a team. However, we are also looking to gather a list of folks who would be available as a substitute or to fill in from time to time. If you would prayerfully consider this request and let Louise Cook know if you would be interested, that would be an amazing help to our committee.

Louise can be reached at louisecook916@gmail.com or you can speak to her at

THANK YOU TO OUR FINANCIAL SECRETARIES

Terri Himes has been our Financial Secretary for 15 years. She will be stepping down after she finishes training her replacements. We are all very grateful to her for her many years of excellent work.

Thank you also to Martha Batch and Molly Nunnery who are our new Financial Secretaries. They are sure to do a great job.

Happy Birthday!
